

We used Belgrade Limo services for the first time in organizing important scientific international meeting. Reliability and preciseness, high level of professionalism that implies comfortable vehicles, highly qualified drivers with fluency in English language, their readiness to meet all our need and, often, unpremeditated improvisations, had the great influence on our desire to use their services in the future.

Nataša Ognjanović
Center for International Collaboration
Faculty of Medicine in Belgrade